Mirroring the utterly malign influence of a mass media in the hands of the corporate class, solely interested in using this critical medium for mass enlightenment just to make money or defend a rotten and criminal status quo, it comes as no surprise that while this indispensable film has only been seen by fewer than 10,000 people, an insult to the quality and importance of this material, countless films and tv shows dedicated to escapism and outright lying, rake in viewers by the hundreds of thousands and often millions, The story of 1964 Wilderness Act—its birth, support, and betrayal, goes begging. Well, help us repair this disgraceful situation by recommending this film to friends, kin and workmates. Countering the stupidity and ignorance blob consuming the American mind is actually up to you. And it has to be done if the world is to stand a chance of changing course for the better.
