Alex Rubinstein On The 'Woke Imperialism' Of The Biden Administration

First iteration March 21, 2021

Shadowproof

Please enjoy this preview clip from the "Unauthorized Disclosure" podcast hosted by Rania Khalek and Kevin Gosztola. In the episode, journalist Alex Rubinstein, a contributor to The Grayzone as well as MintPress News, discusses the "woke imperialism" of President Joe Biden's administration. He published a report, "Intersectional Imperialism: A Wholesome Menace," that examined how the administration is weaponizing diversity at the Pentagon, CIA, State Department, and other agencies. It wokewashes the endless wars of the United States government and helps the empire rebrand itself. Alex highlights a couple slick promotional videos from the Pentagon and NATO that are examples of this deployment of intersectionality. Later, Rania and Alex have an in-depth conversation about the YPG, a Kurdish militia in Syria, and how they have wielded identity to build support for war.

Note: This brave program is clearly being choked by Google (owner of YouTube). This commenter says it well:

It's quite OBVIOUS the empire tentacles (in this case read Google, who owns YouTube) are cynically choking this program algorithmically, which, by the way, had the audacity of ANNOUNCING PUBLICLY. They are into stifling all dissenting voices, labeling them "fake news", while pushing "authoritative media", you know who those are—the old corporate media whores producing endless lies to serve the global oligarchy. It's disgraceful that VITAL discussions like these get a meager 500 views, while toxic imperialist disinformers like Rachel Maddow, grotesquely paid, enjoy gigantic audiences in the millions.
