Ukraine asks French Canal+ TV to take 'wrong' Maidan" documentary off air.

Ukraine's authorities have urged a French broadcaster to take a documentary titled 'Masks of Revolution' off the air. They claim the movie misrepresents Maidan events, and have a list of their own suggestions for what needs to be shown. READ MORE: on.rt.com/739w

Ukrainian authorities say that Moreira's Masks of Revolution is "deception" and not an example of "media pluralism," as it provides a "misrepresented view on the situation in Ukraine."

"The version of events in the Ukraine offered in the film is pleasing to the ears of conspiracy theories' supporters and of pro-Russian propagandists. This pamphlet is a documentary made in the worst tradition of misinformation," the statement adds.

The diplomats went on to urge Canal+ "to reconsider the possibility of airing the film on TV."

Also, the embassy gave a list of suggestions about what the French broadcaster should show about 2014 Maidan events, "hoping that one day these movies will be presented on Canal +"

The filmmaker, Paul Moreira, has responded to the accusations, saying his film was "contrary to the commonly accepted narrative" but the reaction still shocked him.

Up to You.

^3000US citizens have no real political representation.

We don't live in a democracy. And our freedom is disappearing fast.

I don't want to be ruled by hypocrites, whores, and war criminals.

What about you? Time to push back against the corporate oligarchy.

And its multitude of minions and lackeys.
