The Dive With Jackson Hinkle Published September 4, 2022

Jackson covers a topic of massive interest that has been almost entirely swept under the rug by the American media.

The few exceptions include Bloomberg and the Wall Street Journal, as the business press is obligated to present the world's news, and as much truth as possible, to the business class. Notably, the VoA, which aims its news to foreign publics, including Europeans, reported on this, as it presumed they already knew about it, or would know soon, since their own media would not miss such a development without losing total credibility. Another exception to the blatant blackout and downplay on this event was provided by online news channel CRUX, owned and staffed by Indian nationals. Like India itself, which under Modi appears to balance itself between the Americans and Moscow, CRUX reports are often tinged with a bit of Western slant, but, as a rule, carry more reliable information than American or European counterparts. See the CRUX video report in this post's Appendix.

Jackson on Tucker Carlson—telling it like it is

The smug WOKE media won't touch him, except to denigrate him and what he says, but people like Tucker have offered him a platform.

Up to You.

^3000US citizens have no real political representation.

We don't live in a democracy. And our freedom is disappearing fast.

I don't want to be ruled by hypocrites, whores, and war criminals.

What about you? Time to push back against the corporate oligarchy.

And its multitude of minions and lackeys.
